Armstrong-Gresham.

Married, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Joel W. Gresham, near Bainbridge, Ky., on Thursday, March 18th, 1886, at 11 o'clock, A. M. Mr. B. T. Armstrong to Miss Leona W. Gresham.

The ceremony was performed by Esq. Robert Martin in his usual graceful manner, in the presence of a large concourse of friends. After the bride and groom had received the many congratulations of their friends all parties partook of and did ample justice to a sumptuous dinner prepared for the occasion by our worthy hostess, Mrs. Gresham. The table fairly groined beneath the weight of the costly delicacies with which it was loaded. After a few hours spent in social enjoyment, as many as could repaired to the residence of the groom's father, Esq. Elijah Armstrong, where the affair supper was partaken of, the festivities continuing until a late hour.

The groom is one of the most promising, gentlemanly young men North Christian affairs, and is to be congratulated on securing for himself, such an accomplished, good looking, good natured young lady, as the bride for a wife. May their journey together down the "River of Life" be ever pleasant and their matrimonial sky be as cloudless as the day they were joined together.

E. F. C.

Married.

SLAUGHTER-FRANKEL.—At Cincinnati, Ohio, Thursday evening March 18th, Mr. Charles Slaughter, of this city and Miss Rosa Frankel, of Cincinnati. The wedding took place at Eureka Hall and the couple were married in accordance with the rites of the Jewish church, Rev. Dr. Isaac Wise officiating. There were four ushers, Mr. Oscar Slaughter, of Louisville; Mr. Henry Frankel, of Hopkinsville; Mr. Henry Rauh and Mr. James Swope, of Cincinnati.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. M. Frankel, head of the firm of M. Frankel & Sons, of this city, but who is now a resident of Cincinnati. She was reared in this city and lived here until a few years ago. Bright, winsome and attractive, she possesses many rare attributes and personal charms, and the fortunate groom will be heartily gratified by all who knew his youthful bride during her former residence in Hopkinsville.

Mr. Slaughter is connected with the firm of Frankel & Sons, and is a most estimable and deserving young man. Moral, upright, courteous and agreeable to all, he is popular with everybody and deserves to be. May the happy young couple realize the full fruition of their hopes of happiness.

A protracted meeting was begun at the Baptist church last Sunday. The pastor is assisted by Rev. J. S. Felix, an eloquent young divine of Owensboro.

The protracted meeting at the 9th street Presbyterian church is still in progress and will continue during this week. Rev. Mr. Morrison is still assisting the pastor.

Bartholomew Dinneen, a brother of John Dinneen, was yesterday adjudged a lunatic and sent to the Asylum. His lunacy was brought on by a blow received on his head while engaged in mining out west some time ago.

Dr. B. W. Stone, one of the Western Lunatic Asylum physicians, came over from Hopkinsville Wednesday to escort Dr. Shutt back to the Asylum. Dr. Shutt is not extravagantly fond of Dr. Stone, and raised some objection to traveling in his company. He finally waived his objection, however, and they left together yesterday.

Owensboro Messenger.

Clarence Lindsay, one of the members of Company D, stationed at Greenwood, Pulaski county, came home Sunday, having been relieved by Private Jacob Jones, who left last week for Greenwood. He reports the boys having a good time with no prospect of having to do any fighting. The miners are simply playing a "freeze out" game and the result will be that the soldiers will be kept on duty indefinitely. The convicts have gotten over their fright and are at work again.

The "HORSE SHOE BRAND" Tobacco Grower stands without a rival as to quality, price and mechanical condition. It furnishes food for the plant from the beginning of the crop to its maturity. It makes tobacco that cures easy and uniformly. No spotting. It largely increases the yield. The color and texture just right, and always brings the top market price. Our best farmers know these facts and are buying this brand in preference to any other.

J. R. GREEN & CO.

Capt. E. R. Cook, in attempting to stop some dogs from fighting Saturday morning in the store-room of Jas. Pye & Co., on Main St., kicked at them and accidentally struck the left side of his abdomen against the corner of the counter. He thought nothing of the slight wound, and went on about his business. Saturday night he was bothered by some little pain which increased on Sunday, and finally resulted in peritonitis. He suffered considerably Monday but was resting apparently easy yesterday evening, when we went to press, and is in no imminent danger.

TOBACCO SALES.

Sales by Abernathy & Co., March 17, of 40 hds. tobacco, as follows:

Common lugs, from $2.50 to 3.50.

Good lugs, from $4.00 to 5.00.

Common leaf, from $4.50 to 6.00.

Good leaf, from $7.00 to 8.50.

Offerings for the week were large with prices well sustained on medium to good leaf, while the common grades were low and neglected. The better kinds may be marketed to advantage, but we think common grades should be prized in dry order and rolled aside taking chances for a better day.

TAILORS ON A STRIKE.

Jas. Pye & Co., the Sufferers.

Monday morning all the tailors in the merchant tailoring establishment of Jas. Pye & Co., at No. 3, South Main, struck for about a 10 per cent increase in wages. Threats were made last week that some action would be taken if prices were not advanced, but no definite action was taken until yesterday. One Pat McArdle, the instigator, of the strike was brought here from Louisville, some time since by Mess. Pye & Co., who paid his fare, and never deducted the amount from his wages, which proves that he received proper treatment at the hands of his employers. Mr. J. R. Simpson, the cutter, has often extended favors to the tailors working under him, and says there was no occasion for a strike on account of an intention on the part of the tailors to bulldoze the house into paying increased prices. The prices paid by Mess. Pye & Co., are as good as most any of this size, and equal to those paid by a number of large tailoring establishments in Louisville. Jim Courtney quit work last week, being the first one to strike, because his demands were not acceded to. The strikers consisted of 4 Germans, 2 Americans and 1 Irishman. This is the first action of the kind on the part of any class of workmen in this city, but it seems as if some of the effects of Knights of Labor influence is among us, and the community may not be surprised at any action taken. The strike will only effect Mess. Pye & Co., temporarily, as more workmen have been telegraphed for, and their work will only be thrown behind a day or two.

We understand a Knights of Labor meeting was held in J. J. Austin's cooper-shop on Clay St. last Saturday night, but nothing can be learned of the purport of the meeting.

The Martin Case.

The case of Henry Martin, col., charged with killing Wiley Hutchinson, col., in this city, was called yesterday. A motion for a continuance was over-ruled and the selection of a jury was begun at 10:30. It took two hours to get the jury, only four of the regular panel being taken. Sixty-six men were questioned, the 1st, 7th, 11th, 16th, 28th, 29th, 33rd, 35th, 36th, 43rd, 47th and 66th being accepted. The prosecution challenged one, the defense nineteen and the rest had either formed opinions or had conscientious scruples on the subject of capital punishment. The following is a list of the jurors:

THE JURY.

Jno. W. Courtney, Robt. L. Boyd, F. M. Pierce, G. R. Pierce, J. N. Johnson, T. C. Carter, John O'Chafin, col., John Barnes, J. C. Adcock, R. N. Lander, col., J. W. Gresham, J. C. Weddington.

Mrs. Roe's fascinating story, "How a Home was Made," reaches chapter third; Kit Clover contributes the pathetic "Story of Nebuchadnezzar," and Mrs. Ferrine gives the husband's side of the story of so many homes. An unusually full correspondence and receipt department makes up the more practical part of the paper, which is indispensable to every woman who prides herself on her home and housekeeping. The premium offer of $1.00 of Garden and Flower Seeds to every subscriber for one year at $1.00, is limited to April 15th. Send at once for specimen copy and terms to BUCKEY PUBLISHING CO., Minneapolis, Minn.

Miraculous Escape.

W. W. Reed, druggist, of Winchester, Ind., writes: "One of my customers, Mrs. Louisa Pike, Barton, Randolph Co., Ind., was a long sufferer with Consumption, and was given up to die by her physicians. She heard of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and began using it of me. In six months' time she walked to this city, a distance of six miles, and is now so much improved she has quit using it. She feels she owes her life to it." Free trial bottle at J. R. Armistead's drug store.

Bill McDonald, who was wanted at Owens county, Ky., for the murder of W. J. Rothwell, in 1882, was arrested in Jackson township, Pickaway county, O., while at work on a farm.

Iron Jewelry.

We read that iron jewelry is being extensively worn, and that one knows not which most to admire, the elegance of the finished work, the skill of the molder or the fine quality of the metal that may be induced to assume such elaborate forms. Some of the articles, as bracelets, have a beauty of network almost rivaling Italian filigree in gold, yet it is nothing but cast iron. The polish is perfect and not easily tarnished, even when exposed to the action of the carbonic acid of a crowded, ill-ventilated room. The metal is a clear, bluish, almost transparent sheen, from which the light is reflected as from the diamond. The polishing of the facets is performed upon an ordinary buff-wheel dressed with crocus.—Iron Age.
